A COLORFUL YEAR

The CHILVALEE staff has published the 1964-1965 edition with the hope that it will provide kaleidoscopic memories of "A Colorful Year at Chilhowie High" - a year made up of the gray haze of somber study, the bright enthusiasm of various activities and events, the indelible influence of wise leaders; a year in which rosy outlooks dispelled Monday blues; a year in which silver friendships were intensified by friendly cooperation; a year filled with iridescent dreams and golden aspirations.

SENIOR CLASS OF 1965

COLORS: Green and White - FLOWER: Orchid - MOTTO: "Forward ever; backward never."

From verdant freshmen to seasoned sophomores, from busy juniors to persevering seniors - these are the steps by which the Class of 1965 has come. Memories will linger of festive homecomings, multi-colored floats, flashing class rings, crimson F.H.A. activities, tedious magazine sales, the intense excitement of the Washington trip, deep and serious study. Seniors treasure the memory of these years exciting active COLORFUL.

JUNIOR CLASS

In the fall the Junior Class had lots of fun and togetherness, working for several evenings on their class float for the Homecoming parade, held prior to the CHS-Rich Valley football game. The theme of the float was "Slay 'em and Display 'em on a Bun."

During the winter the class again displayed their loyalty by taking part in play tryouts for "Nobody Sleeps." Donna Blankenbeckler was the winning mother, Mrs. Busby. Her charming teenage daughters were Susan McCormick as Daisy, Kay Greever as Ada, Barbara Gray as Glory. Spike, locally known as Tommy McGhee, added fun and fury to the plot as an off-beat burglar.

In the spring the most rewarding class project was entertaining the Seniors at the "Gay Paree" prom. This evening in May will always be remembered in a setting of colorful radiance.

SCORES

The 1964 Warrior Football Team started its season with a bang, defeating archrival Marion on the Scarlet Hurricane's home field. The Warriors continued their winning ways in the next two games, which were both District tilts. Because of injuries the Warriors dropped their next five contests, four of which were district games. The Warriors ended their season in fine fashion, knocking Rural Retreat and John Battle out of the District championship on two successive weeks.
